

Petitions For Class Officers
April 12-14

The Colonnade

HAPPY
EASTER

April 6, 1954

Georgia State College for Women

Vol. XXX, No. 10

Scandinavian Expert Speaks To Students On Lyceum Program

As the final program in our 1954 Lyceum Series Mr. Henry Goddard Leach was presented in an address in Russell Auditorium on Friday morning, April 2. The GSCW Lyceum Committee, headed by Dr. Donald MacMahon, have sponsored in the Lyceum programs this year, Miss Cornelia Otis Skinner, famed dramatist and author, and S. E. Gerard Priestley, English-born student of world affairs who spoke on "The Challenge of the Twentieth Century."

Mr. Leach is a native of Philadelphia and studied at Harvard University. He taught several years at Groton School and at Harvard and since 1912 has been an executive of The American-Scandinavian Foundation of which he is now President Emeritus. The editor of The Forum and Century Magazine for nearly twenty years, Dr. Leach is regarded as one of the outstanding speakers at GSCW in several years.

In recent years, Mr. Leach has lectured in one hundred and twenty universities and colleges in the United States and Canada. He is the author of Scandinavia of the Scandinavians, Angevin Britain and Scandinavia, A Pageant of Old Scandinavia, and The Fire's Center. Among his awards are the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Harvard University and the University of Upsala in Sweden, the titles of Commander of the North Star and Commander of Vasa from Sweden, Commander of the Dannebrog from Denmark, Commander of Saint Olav from Norway, Commander of the Falcon from Iceland, and the medals of Phi Beta Kappa and the Poetry Society of America.

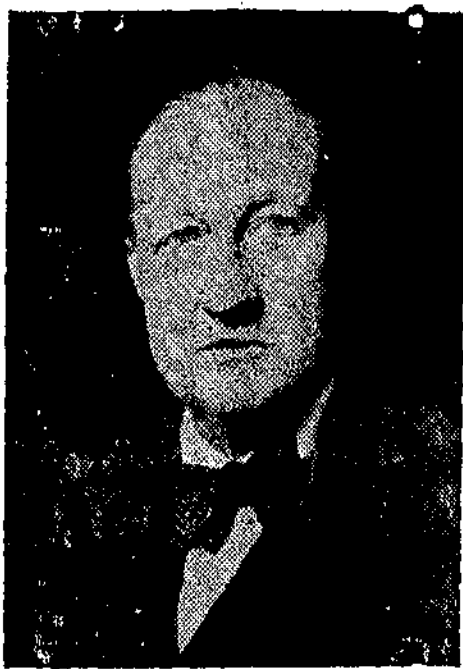

According to the Seattle Times, he "has done more than any other living person to promote international education between Scandinavian lands and the United States." Wells College comments, "It was a new experience to many of the students to discover so much humor and humanity in one and the same speaker. As one Senior put it, it was a treat to shake, for one evening, the great world of letters by the hand." The title of Dr. Leach's GSCW address was "The Cultivation of the Beautiful."

Photographs On Exhibit In Porter Gallery

A very interesting exhibit of photographs by Willetta Eberhart Johnson of Milledgeville will open in Porter Gallery Thursday, April 8th and will remain on display until April 24th, Miss Mamie Padgett, head of art department announced.

Mrs. Johnson and her husband are co-operators of Eberhart Studio which was formally owned and operated by Mrs. Johnson's parents. Although she was trained as a teacher and taught in several neighboring towns, Mrs. Johnson decided her true work was in the photographic field and she attended a technical school at Winona Lake, Indiana.

Mrs. Johnson has made a specialty of baby pictures and her work has been in several exhibitions and received awards. Photographs of GSCW students in the exhibit include those of Martha Stivers, Harriet May, Nita English and former students Polly Farr Fulghum, and Kitty Marie Smith Hallam.

HENRY GODDARD LEACH

Seventy-Eight Students Make Dean's List

The following students are on the winter quarter Dean's List: Bagwell, Myra Louise; Beavers, Beverly Marie; Bishop, Barbara Mae; Black, Floy Elizabeth; Blackmon, Mary Virginia; Blolock, Patricia Ruth; Bond, Barbara Helene; Bowen, Lena Anne; Brannan, Jean Floy; Bray, June Susan.

Brown, Emma Ruth; Burton, Elizabeth Ann; Cardwell, Phyllis Ann; Carlton, Mrs. Lilla Long; Christian, Dido; Collins, Martha Patricia; Combs, Mary Jim; Craig, Barbara Ann; Crooke, Florence Earline; Dunahoo, Eleanor Marie. Elrod, Ida Jane; Fernandez, Manolita; Fields, Mary Caroline; Folger, Sara Alice; Gay, Lucy Berry; Hall, Mary; Hall, Ruby Anita; Hanson, Edith Imogene; Hardy, Sara Elizabeth; Harrell, Helen Ward.

Herring, Betty Jean; Hopper, Mary Jean; Houston, Dorothy Louise; Johnson, Patricia Ann; Jones, Eleanor Marlene; Kobs, Nancy Marie; Langdon, Joyce Elaine; Lenoir, Cecil Whitaker; Lewis, Martha Camp; Lokey, Mary Clifford.

McDaniel, Etta Lee; McKenzie, Della Ruth; McLanahan, Madge; Martin, Mary Carolyn; Maxwell, (Continued on page three)

CGA Holds Impressive Installation

GLORIA RIGGINS
College Government Association began its nineteenth year on this campus yesterday when the traditional CGA installation of old and newly-elected officers, class presidents, and cabinet members was held in Russell Auditorium during assembly period.

In responding to the charge made to her by Pat Sutton, retiring president, Jan Anderson accepted her responsibilities with, "I take this Student Government cup as a token of the students' confidence in me and on my own responsibility to them. It is an awesome position in which I find myself, and if it were not for your sound practices and the support of faculty and students, I should feel too frail for the work ahead."

Others elected recently in the campus-wide election to represent the student body in CGA, and who took part in Monday's impressive installation ceremony are: Jo Strickland, vice president; Lee Strozler, corresponding secretary; Libby Powell, treasurer; Louise Powell, chairman of judiciary; and Sarah Anne Staples, chairman of honor board.

Discussions Of Rule Changes At CGA Retreat

Sarah Anne Staples

"The forward look" was emphasized in C.G.A.'s spring retreat which was held at Lake Laurel on Friday and Saturday, April 2nd and 3rd. The meetings officially began with the presentation of the gravel to Jan Anderson, newly elected president of C.G.A., by Pat Sutton, the retiring president. Jan welcomed faculty and students to the retreat and called for the announcement of next year's junior advisors. Jo Strickland, vice-president of CGA, announced the list as follows:

Lee Strozler, Ruth Brown, Jo Strickland, Libby Powell, Ethel Ann Cook, Sue Ozburn, Gail Thompson, Gloria Irwin, Etta Lee McDaniel, and Joe Harpe. Jo Vir-den and June Bray were chosen as first and second alternates to serve in case a vacancy occurs.

One of the big issues of the retreat was rule changes. Each rule was seriously considered and thoroughly discussed. There were several suggested changes that the group immediately threw out because they felt that such changes would definitely defeat some of the objectives that CGA, Rec, and Y are promoting collectively. One of these suggestions was that girls be allowed to make and receive local phone calls during study hall. This was thrown out on the grounds that phone calls would break study hall and be disturbing to the whole floor when girls (Continued on page three)

Phyllis Cardwell Is Recipient Of Life Membership In A.A.U.W.

Phyllis Cardwell, retiring president of the YWCA, has been selected as recipient for a life membership in the American Association of University Women. Every year the state association of AAUW gives this award to a senior from one of the colleges in Georgia belonging to AAUW.

The award is made on the basis of scholarship and leadership in extra-curricular activities. Emphasis is placed upon the well-rounded college student and selection of the recipient is made by the college.

Elected with Phyllis by the senior class for presentation to the Faculty Committee on Student Relations for the final decision were Floy Black and Della Ruth McKenzie. Faculty members composing the committee are Dr. Stanford, Dr. MacMahon, Miss Maxwell, Dr. Smith, Miss Chapin, Dr. Dawson, Dr. Folger, Mrs. Smith, and Mr. Specht.

A very active and popular girl since she has been at GSCW, Phyllis has held many offices including Representative to Honor Council her freshman and junior years, Y Cabinet her freshman and sophomore years, class officer her junior year, President's Cabinet on CGA, the Spectrum staff, and President of YWCA her senior year. Phyllis was also elected to Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities.

This is the first year that GSCW has been eligible for this honor and Phyllis will meet with the AAUW at their state meeting to be held at Savannah on April 24th.

GSCW Seniors Practice Teach Near and Far

The girls who are doing their practice teaching at the Peabody Elementary School are Bobbie Rozar, first grade; Mary Meeks, second grade; Mary E. Moseley and Jeanne Brannon, third grade; Peggy Crosby and La Vance Clements, fourth grade; Martha Pridgoon, fifth grade; and Dennise Cox and Mariuna Morrison, seventh grade.

Those teaching music at Peabody are Laura Dell Trapnell, Natalie Harrison, Mrs. Jane Rider Newsome, Charlotte Warren, Barbara Thompson, Patsy Thomas, and Louise McKnight.

The practice teachers at Peabody High School are Mary Bryne Stover, Jacqueline Spivey, Patricia Peebles—mathematics; Mrs. Sue Parks Gibbs, biology; Ann Johnson, Caroline Griffith, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkland Jones—English; Loretta Whitley, Eunice Knight—Spanish; Mrs. Virginia Veal Merela, Katherine Stansell, Imogene Hanson, Nancy Kobs—social studies; Carolyn June Penick—business; Mrs. Eleanor Warren May, Mary Virginia Blackmon, Margaret Morrison—physical education.

Those students who are doing their practice teaching off campus are as follows: Winn Robinson in Milledgeville, at the Midway High School—business; Libby Smith in Sandersville, at the Sandersville High School—business; and Madge McLanahan in Sandersville at the elementary school—first grade.

The girls teaching home economics are Ophelia Holton and Paula Scarborough, McRae; Marie Dunahoo and Pat Sutton, Washington; Norma McCorkle and Joan Whitfield, Chauncey; Jackie Lankford, Soperton; Jean Gregory and Barbara Dillard, Metter; and Lucy Todd and Janice Newsome, Eastman.

"Young and Fair"

"Young and Fair" is the title. The cast is composed of no less than twenty-one females! It is to be presented April 22, 23. And it's different!

Its appeal should be felt throughout the campus for it concerns life within a girls' college. And it depicts the triumphs and downfalls of student and faculty with warmth, humor, and tenderness. The plot is centered around a domineering girl whose drive for power succeeds only in bringing disaster to the school.

Of the twenty-one roles, some shall be filled by Caroline Griffith, Ann Johnson, Jeanine Tyre, Kathryn Reeves, Lee Strozler, Peggy Ann Von Phippen, June Bray, Della Ruth McKenzie, Nancy Kobs, Helen Barnhill, Jean Mitchell, and Peggy O'Neill.

It's only two weeks before the curtain goes up, so be watching for it!

The Spring Dance Will Feature CLAUDE THORNHILL'S ORCHESTRA See Next Colonnade for Details

Star of New York Opera Company Performs In Russell Auditorium

Mary Bonzo

The last concert in the Community Concert series was held in Russell Auditorium Wednesday night. Frances Yeend, leading soprano of the New York Opera Company gave a marvelous performance. Miss Yeend has just returned from a tour in Europe after giving concerts with the Munich and Vienna Operas at London's Covent Garden, in the Bach Festival in Holland, Brahms Festival with the British Broadcasting Commission and with the London Mozart Players. She was the only American artist to appear with the Covent Garden Opera in the festival in Bulawayo, South Africa, celebrating the 100th Anniversary of Rhodesia.

A star of opera and concert stages Miss Yeend has sung several roles in the leading operas of this country. She has toured from Coast to coast and has sung in Mexico, Canada, and Newfoundland.

Miss Yeend is a native American, being born in Vancouver, Washington. She received her music education in Portland, Oregon, and at Washington State College in Pullman. There she studied concert work, opera, and prepared for dramatic appearances in the Northwest.

FRANCES YEEND

After the concert Wednesday night she left for engagements in Florida. From there she will go on to a successful year of concerts.

The Colonnade

Published bi-weekly during the school year, except during holidays and examination periods by the students of the Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Georgia. Subscription price, $1.00 per year. Member of Associated Collegiate Press Association.

(Printed by The Union-Recorder, Milledgeville, Ga.)

ASSOCIATED COLLEGIATE PRESS

EDITORIAL STAFF—

Shirley Lagerblad Editor
Sue Ozburn Sports Editor
Charlie Pritchett Art Editor
Jo Strickland Sarah Anne Staples, Mary Bonzo, Lisa Hardie, Lee Strozler, June Bray, Sylvia McClusky, Dallas Patterson,
Pat Collins, Jo Virden, Betty Churchwell, Sallie Howell,
Gloria Higgins, Barbara Shellhase Reporters
Dorothy London Typist

BUSINESS STAFF—

Barbara Bishop Business Manager
Prudy Sinkhorn Circulation and Exchange
Ethel Ann Cook Asst. Circulation and Exchange

THE COLONNADE AND YOU

The Colonnade is a vital organ of the GSCW student body. Unlike a mirror, it gives the reader more than a general idea of her appearance—it goes deeper, far deeper, because it shows the attitudes and convictions on this campus.

You, every freshman, sophomore, junior and senior, are GSCW, and it is you that is seen in the Colonnade. Seems a little crooked, or perhaps a touch of lipstick is needed? Well, those are small things and don't take long to fix. Neither does it take a moment to let a staff member know of something you think should be in the Colonnade or to write a letter to the editor expressing your views or questioning someone else's.

No one can put on your lipstick but you—and correspondingly, no one can tell what your opinions, your likes and dislikes are quite as well as you yourself can. Won't you help make the Colonnade a better reflection of GSCW?

I AM GSCW

(Reprinted from the Sept. 30, 1952 issue of the Colonnade)

I am GSCW—I am an instrument to be used and polished—to be welded and wrought by the eager minds of striving students. I am, in truth, the reflection of the past, the symbol intangible, the product of all who have gone before who have built my walls and preserved my future.

I have long been kept alive by the searching breath of youth, but I grow faded and tarnished by the past's dim light, and I wait with an eternal sureness for today's ideas. I am thought but a shell, a prospective covering of the spirit of truth, honor, knowledge, and the laughter of friendship, but my resources are yours. My traditions are a valuable trust, which are now placed confidently in your hands, with the sure knowledge that the present will never fail the past nor betray an expectant future.

My life is lived by the students—without them I am empty buildings—a body without mind or soul—a reeking tomb without essential air, and an ancient hand without groping fingers. I am, alone, an instrument, the lamp of learning, the symbol of knowledge, but in the grasp of youth I am a burning torch—carried aloft by the strength of the intellect, and I am now indefatigable—I am GSCW.

SERENE PEACE

By Louise Pasteur

Whatever your career may be, do not let yourselves become tainted by a deprecating and barren skepticism, do not let yourselves be discouraged by the sadness of certain hours which pass over nations. Live in the serene peace of laboratories and libraries. Say to yourselves first, "What have I done for my instruction?" and as you gradually advance, "What have I done for my country?" until the times comes when you may have the immense happiness of thinking that you have contributed in some way to the progress and to the good of humanity. But whether our efforts are, or not, favored by life, let us be able to say when we come near the great goal, "I have done what I could."

PI OMEGA PI

Pi Omega Pi celebrated its second year of organization with a birthday party on March 31 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Fuller.

At this meeting Winn Robinson was elected secretary, replacing Ester Ortega who has returned to her home in Panama.

Voted as Pledges to Pi Omega Pi are the following people who have met the standards of the organization: Myra Bagwell, Lilly Ruth Parker, Sally Robinson, and Jane Chalkey. These pledge service will be April 8. The date for the initiation is April 15.

GAMMA NU

Ar Alan Lloyd, editor and publisher of the Gregg Publications gave a lecture demonstration during the Christmas Holidays at the National Business Teachers meeting in Chicago. The twenty-one posters made by the Gamma Nu Chapter for this demonstration will appear in the May issue of Business Education World, a national magazine for business teachers.

Congratulations girls! Keep up the good work.

A CAPELLA and NEW ORLEANS

Betty Churchwell

The Milledgeville A Cappella choir left Friday, March 19 beginning their annual ten day tour, this time to New Orleans. The members of the choir were given a farewell amid excitement and confusion from the GSCW campus by members of the choir who did not travel and former members of the choir.

Breman was the first stop and after the concert there at the First Baptist Church where a former GSCW student and choir member, Annie Ruth Hawkins, was sponsor the choir members were entertained in various homes for the night by residents of Breman.

Saturday, March 20, the choir continued its journey stopping in LaGrange, Ga. for lunch and Warm Springs, Ga. for a tour of the Little White House and the Polio Foundation there. A concert was given in West Point, Ga. Saturday evening at the Presbyterian church under the sponsorship of Mrs. C. C. Stover, mother of Mary Byrne Stover, a senior at GSCW and a choir member.

Sunday, March 21, saw the choir on its way to Columbus, Miss. via Opelika, Wetumpka, Prattville and Tusculum. The choir performed at the First Methodist Church during the morning church hour after which lunch was served to the choir by the church. Sunday night the concert was broadcast from the First Methodist Church in Columbus, Miss. The church is very old and historical, a beautiful building, Columbus is the home of the State College for Women. Incidentally, GSCW has the well known nickname of "JESSIE W." MSCW is jokingly called "Messie W." After much fellowship and southern hospitality the choir continued on its way the next morning to Cleveland, Miss.

Miss Bobbie McKinney, teacher of voice and choral director at Delta State College in Cleveland welcomed us as sponsor for our concert at the college auditorium Monday night, March 22. Miss McKinney is a graduate of GSCW and is doing graduate work at the University of North Carolina. After the concert, the choir members spent the night in dormitories of the college. This was an interesting experience for both groups of students for they could compare schools and become acquainted with young people from many towns in Mississippi as well as other states.

Tuesday, March 23, the choir headed for Tallulah, Louisiana, stopping on the way in Vicksburg, La. for lunch and a tour of the National Military Park and museum there. Rev. Irvin Cheney, pastor of the First Baptist Church was sponsor for the concert.

The trip continued on the 24th through Natchez to Baton Rouge where the choir enjoyed a visit to the Louisiana State Capitol and formal gardens where Huey Long is buried. Ponchatoula, First Baptist Church was the scene of the evening concert under the sponsorship of Reverend Bab Wilson.

Now comes the day that every choir member had waited for with excitement and expectation, the arrival in New Orleans. At 10:30 on March 25, the choir was settled at the LaFayette Hotel for several hours of shopping and sight-seeing before leaving late in the afternoon for Slidell, a town a short distance from New Orleans, for the night concert. Later that evening, Mr. and Mrs. Max Noah took the choir members on a night tour of New Orleans. A daytime tour of New Orleans' historical points of interest in the famous French Quarter as well as a boat trip up and down the Mississippi were enjoyed the following day. Dinner at the renowned "Antoinette" really crowned the trip for the choir members.

Saturday morning dawned upon a reluctant and sleepy group of Georgians, for New Orleans experiences were over and the journey back to Georgia was begun.

Just before reaching Mobile, Alabama, a tour of Bellamy Gardens was enjoyed. Donaldsonville, Georgia was the destination for the night with a concert scheduled for eight o'clock. Due to rain, wind and a detour, the choir arrived about 8:30 and was on the stage singing by 8:40.

Sunday, March 26, was the last day out. The choir performed for the morning church service at the First Baptist Church in Edison, the home of Helen Harrell and Thelma Palmer, present members of the choir. After lunch in Edison, the choir left for Columbus, Ga. stopping at Fort Benning for a tour of the Post.

A concert was given at the St. Paul Methodist Church in Columbus where Reverend John E. Wilson is Pastor and sponsored the choir.

On to Milledgeville and at 1 A.M. Monday Morning the choir piled out of the bus with many mixed emotions—tired, sleepy, happy and sad. Many were in tears at the thought of choir being over for the senior choir members. The last night of the choir trip really makes one realize that choir is a wonderful organization under the directorship of a grand person, Dr. Max Noah.

Home Ec Students Attend Career Day

Barbara Shellhorse

In Atlanta on April 1 and 2, the Home Economics in Business Section of the Georgia Home Economics Association sponsored Georgia College Career Day for Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. The program started Thursday morning with girls and faculty members from all over the state attending the Blue Flame TV show, with Lucy Stacey, then in the afternoon the Career Day chairman, Nina Faye Bonner, gave the welcome to an interesting program entitled "Your Horizons". Speakers included Agnes R. Olmstead, chairman of the Georgia HEIB, speaking on "Home Economics Has It for you," and "Meet the Membership", Mr. C. M. Wallace, vice president of The Georgia Power Company, with the subject "What Business Expects from the Home Economist," and Alice Bell, Fashion Consultant at Regenstein's with the fashionable topic "Clothes for Business." A film was shown "Spotlight on Careers," and a skit directed by Elizabeth Parker entitled "How to Apply for a Job" was given.

Friday morning the program was entitled "News Unlimited" and after a welcome by Betty Woods, chairman elect of the Georgia HEIB, the news began. A demonstration on cooking with herbs was given by Gwen Brooks followed by "What's New in Food Products" by Grace Hartley, "News on Major Equipment" by Betty Woods, "Cook Books" by Marion King and last as a special treat, "What's New in the Textile World" by Miss Beth Peterson from the Dupont Company in Wilmington, Delaware. The program ended with lunch at the Emory University cafeteria followed by a tour of the cafeteria.

Delegates from the GSCW home ec club were Charlotte Landrum, Pat Collins, Mary Jim Combs, Nan Herring, Norma Williams, Anne Broom, Eleanor Eubanks, Ruth Brown and Ramona Sims.

There will be a full staff Colonade meeting at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, April 13th in the Colonnade office. Please be prompt.

One good way for a girl to be spic is to have less span.

She—I don't know, George; marriage seems such a solemn thing. Have you counted the cost?

He—The cost, darling! Why, my cousin's a clergyman. He'll marry us for nothing.

And I Wondered No More . . .

Editors Note:—This is the first of two parts of a report on the Methodist Christian Citizenship Seminar in New York and Washington, D. C. attended by Erin Turner, president of YWCA.

ERIN TURNER

Even now it all seems like a dream—yet a dream so real, so demanding that I cannot sit placidly in reverie, musing over each event. Akin to the Ancient Mariner with a strangely like, but different motive, I must repeat my tale . . .

It all began in a rush and remained thus. A well-filled packet—"Dear Seminar Member: Please study carefully the enclosed material in preparation for the Methodist Christian Citizenship Seminar"—and I knew I was "in"—"in" for what I could only speculate. A frantic week of hectic preparations and I settled back on the bouncing bus. Smiling slyly, I gently patted my stuffed, impressive folio (remembering Lawrence and Motive's Conference-manship, I was prepared). Miles of wondering anticipation and then—I was there—

New York with its crowds of thronging people, confusion, skyscrapers (provoking crinks in one's neck), "sudden" subways—New York—and its wonderful Automat, 3 degree weather, China Town and Harlem, and Times Square, perpetually blazing lights, "The King and I", Riverside Church, International House, and the rush continued and my confusion grew.

And then 60 college students and leaders from all over the United States literally sung ourselves into session. An International Folk Song Festival intermingled a "something" vastly larger than this group gathered here—and I wondered—Harold Ehrenberger and "The Christian Responsibility in Citizenship"—"We act because our roots are what they are. Work through a culture, not against it." Have to love a cow!—wondering I thought, "Good! Seems as if this will be a week during which we will learn much that will be of value to us later—later when we really become a part of our government and can do something about it—Yet I wondered . . .

A Study Conference and we studied and we studied—thirty-eight speakers "sandwiched" into a tight schedule. Key spokesmen for varying interests, CIO, NAACP, India, etc., who, speaking for their groups, were later "peppered" with probing questions by a lanky Californian or a soft-spoken Texas lass. Searching questions that challenged, amazed, and occasionally even "stumped" the speaker—and I wondered . . . 150 5th Avenue—"getting acquainted"—a high moment of worship—missions—and we all wondered . . .

An imposing structure, a quiet awe, a hopeful reverence, the United Nations—"the body nearest to a parliament of mankind" across whose tables in these Assembly rooms nations of our world meet and discuss, convinced that mankind can live together in peace and security. But the unknown cry, "The UN has failed!" Oh, remember Indonesia, the Berlin Blockade, Palestine—a light slowly dawns—An appalling number of people misunderstand the UN. It is perhaps my responsibility to inform them of UNESCO, WHO, UNICEF—various units that are making quite commendable strides in raising the economic, social and cultural status of people the world over—giving a starving baby milk—preventing disastrous epidemics by inoculations—but no, later, perhaps—Anyway, our own U.S. government only pays 8½ cents per capita into the UN (less than New York spends on her garbage disposal) as compared with $410 per capita for military. Perhaps this increases my responsibility, but I wondered . . .

In case that big question mark has set you wondering here are the whys and wherefores for it—At the moment there just isn't a name for this column. Won't you help us thing up one? A name for what? Well, a name for a column that includes all those funny little things that have been happening around campus or for that special bit of news everybody should know about.

You know, no matter how hard we on the staff try, we just never seem to be able to get around to all the nooks and crannies in Bell, Terrell, Beeson, and Sanford to hear all these things. So, we're going to put a box down under Y's bulletin board in the SU—you'll know it by the question mark—and all you have to do—sounds like we're giving away a new Cadillac or something—is put a little note in the box telling us what's happening in your crowd and suggest a name for this column. Also stick in suggestions about what you'd like to see in the Colonnade and we'll do our best to get it there.

The NAME will appear in the next issue of the Colonnade—April 20th—look for it and get your titles in.

Meanwhile here are a few bits that have come our way—

Norma Williams attended Career Day in Atlanta this week and brought back a lovely diamond. Doesn't look like she'll have any trouble deciding on her career after she graduates!

Betty Ann Smith, formerly of the class of '54 was married last Thursday.

Clabber has a job in Jefferson, Ga.—with an office and a basketball team. Imagine Clabber in that office. Another young executive.

Good News! Definite plans are being made with a big name band. The date is sometimes in May.

It was announced by Marianne Radcliff (?) that Gay Pettit has become a mother. Congratulations! Bonzo's pinned to a guy at Tech. So that's why its so long for her to get back from Spring Holidays.

Mary Hall's April Fool package turned out to be a slightly premature Easter Bunny.

Careful, Izzi! Old fire extinguishers never die. They just fizzle away!

From all reports the Choir Trip was one of the best ever. It seems that Polly Farr and her new husband happened along at just the right time to leave their car in a most convenient place for a redecorating by the choir group. With $1.50 cokes and Mrs. Noah's free "Y" Retreat was a quite a trip!

"Y" Retreat was a big success, especially the dish-drying and the initiations. The wet weather turned out to be a blessing and a lot of work was accomplished.

DEAN LIST—

Patricia Ann; May, Harriet; Meeks, Mary Virginia; Middlebrooks, Patricia Anne; Nelson, Jane English; O'Neal, Margaret; Helen.

Ortega, Esther M.; Palmer, Thelma; Martha; Patterson, Dallas Ann; Powell, Annie Louise; Register, Janet Carolyn; Rhensy, Leila; Higgins, Gloria Ann; Robinson, Sylvia Arlene; Scarborough, Sylvia Arlene; Shellhorse, Barbara Anne.

Smith, Carol Virginia; Smith, Miriam; Snyder, Mary Nan; Sparks, Emily Jean; Spell, Peggy Joyce; Stansell, Katherine Gertrude; Staples, Sarah Anne; Strickland, Betty Joe; Sutton, Patricia; Turner, Frances Erin.

Wallace, Elizabeth Jeanne; Waters, Elizabeth Anne; Weaver, Betty Ann; White, Nancy Eugenia; Williams, June Dolores; Wootton, Mamie Anzlett; Yawn, Hattie Jean; Young, Martha Isabel.

SPORTS & FEATURES

INSIDE THE JESSIE SPORT WORLD

Sue Ozburn

Spring is officially here and for the past week the tennis courts have been filled and the swimming pool has been in constant use. Basketball is a thing of the past and softball takes the spotlight.

Let's not forget about softball intramurals; practices are every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday; be sure to get in three practices before game time. Everybody come on out! Quote Pat Collins: "No skill or experience necessary."

Tennis Club invites anyone interested to try out. They meet every Tuesday. Tennis Club will sponsor a faculty-student tournament later on in the quarter. If you're wise you will get your partner lined up now. P. S. Mr. Specht is not available!

Anyone interested in a birdwalk and breakfast cook-out the Saturday morning of Easter week end see Erin or Sue . . . Good news for you skaters. Rec. is buying twenty-five new pairs of skates and a skating party is planned for the near future. We're sorry Harriet May can't be here to lead the party . . . A reminder to turn in your Rec. points, remember they add up . . . don't forget play night every Saturday night . . . If you've been having a hard time finding life guards, in the future see Carmen Davis, Beeson; Pat Foster, Bell; or Dean Rollen, Terrell . . . anyone that would like to learn to play golf see Tot Crooke, she can be found on the hockey field with clubs and balls every afternoon at three.

Congratulations are in order for Stella Alston, the new president of Rec, and her new board. Already it looks like a good quarter.

Modern Dance Club

Juniors Become Senior Members

The initiation of the Junior Dance Club members into the Senior Dance Club was held Tuesday at 4:10 in the Dance Studio. A poem explaining the true meaning and value of the club to its new members was read as each girl was initiated. The Senior Club members held in their hands lighted candles; as the name of each Junior member was called she came forward and lit her candle from that of her sister's candle in the Senior Dance Club.

After the program of initiation was held refreshments were served and a social hour was held.

We, the college students and faculty, would like to congratulate the new members and wish them the best for the following years.

low girls to have campus dates on week nights. This suggestion was discussed at great length and many points were given both pro and con.

The idea of Friday, Saturday, and Sunday becoming riding nights for upperclassmen with the same privileges for freshmen after their first six weeks on campus was also presented. This will be further discussed by Student Council.

The group decided that the use of rec halls for Friday night dating is a matter to be left with the dormitories.

The proposal that dances be extended to one o'clock was rejected because many orchestras do not play after 12:00 o'clock and those that do, charge more for the service. It was decided that 8:00—12:00 o'clock was sufficient time for dances with special permission to have breakfasts from 12:00 to 1:00 o'clock.

In connection with the dances, it was suggested that next year the freshmen and sophomores and the juniors and seniors combine in sponsoring dances. In this way better decorations and better orchestras could be obtained and these classes would be given an opportunity for co-operative work. Dr. Stanford announced that

Rec Makes

Many Plans

At Retreat

Sue Ozburn
The Rec. retreat was held this past weekend and the tentative plans for the year were set up; also the purpose of the weekly executive board meetings and monthly general board meetings were evaluated. The group went into a detailed discussion concerning the duties of officers and managers so there is no doubt in anyone's mind as to her job.

Many suggestions were made as to how to improve next year's program which includes snag week, sports day, annual hike, skill clubs, intramurals and play night. Many additions to these activities will be made; a few of the suggestions were nature walks, overnights, bridge and canasta tournaments, an officials club, and crafts at play night.

The executive board of Rec includes Stella Alston, president; Sue Ozburn, vice-president; Jo Virden, treasurer; Jane Adams, secretary; Mildred Barrett, corresponding secretary; Reba Sutton, Jo Harpe, publicity; and Patsy Orr, point recorder. General board appointed to serve with executive includes volleyball, Peggy O'Neal; basketball, Patsy Meyers; swimming, Carmen Davis, Pat Foster, Dean Rollen; Play night, Tot Crooke, Lee Strozler, and Jan Haines; softball, Joyce Barneau; Town Girls, Yvonne Watson, and Marianne Berry; Bell Hall Manager, Sonya Riddeck.

IRC

IRC's program for the year has been Nationalism and Unrest in the Moslem World and the Economic Work of the United Nations and the United States Point Four in undeveloped countries.

During the winter quarter the colonial peoples viewpoint was stressed, while the spring quarter will give the viewpoint of Americans and Europeans.

Antionette Saglier will speak on French government problems in Morocco, Tunisia, and Algeria at the IRC meeting Tuesday, April 6.

IRC hopes to sponsor a chapel program with Emily Trapnell who returns in April from a year's study in Lima, Peru.

Claude Thornhill will play at the campus-wide dance on May 22nd.

This is an exception to the general rule that has been and will be followed regarding dates for dances in that this dance will be at the end of Dead Week just before (Continued on page four)

Vultures for Culture

Theme at Y Retreat

Billie Sue West
The Young Women's Christian Association held their Spring Retreat at Lake Laurel, March 26 and 27. The old and new members of cabinet reviewed events of the past year, and made prospective plans for the coming year. Mr. Boleyn, minister of the First Methodist Church, was the guest speaker. He emphasized the "C" in YWCA through three talks entitled "Christ, Who Is He," "How He Saves," and "How Can We Follow Him."

Highlights of the business session centered around a program to include more people in Y activities, special stress on current affairs during the coming elections, and cooperation with the other two major organizations to initiate more culture into our campus life. Other important items of business discussed at retreat were plans for better publicity, new committees to include more people, a new Scholarship Fund Committee stressing the importance of the Y book store and the Scholarship Ball in financing the foreign student on campus, plans to accommodate larger groups at Bible Study Breakfast, the need for a Taps program in Sanford and a more efficient program in the other dormitories, and a theme or criterion for chapel devotions.

Members of the new Cabinet are: Erin Turner, president; Elaine Jardine, first vice-president; Gail Thompson, second vice-president; Billie Sue West, secretary; Betsy Burton, treasurer; Dallas Patterson, Bible Study Breakfast; Jo Harpe, Scholarship Fund Committee; Gloria Erwin, Vespers; Gail Christensen, Taps; Ruth Brown, Chapel Devotions; Louise Langdon, Religious Focus Week; Sallie Howell, Social Service; Luanne Hardin, Social; Patsy Blacklock, Current Affairs; Lee Strozler, W. U. S. with Peggy O'Neil on "Inter-collegian."

Visit—

HALL MUSIC

COMPANY

South Wayne St.

DEMPSTER'S

Dry Cleaning & Laundry

ONE DAY SERVICE FOR

GSCW STUDENTS

Visit Globe For The Best Shoe

Service on Earth

GLOBE SHOE HOSPITAL

—Next to Campus Theatre—

BUTTS DRUG COMPANY

"The Friendly Drug Store"

FINEST SERVICE

—AT—
McMILLAN'S SHOE SHOP

Y'S OWL

After a week of missing all of you during the Spring Holidays there were plenty of reunions at the Y Retreat last weekend, when all of the old and new cabinets and Izzie and I gathered at Lake Laurel. See Billie Sue's article on Retreat on page three and get the details from all the people who went.

The next big get-together I attended was the Cabinet meeting over in the 'Owlcove' last Wednesday evening. As the new cabinet entered the Owlcove after Vespers, a long receiving line welcomed them, and our distinguished president, Erin Turner, passed out tooth paste (peppermint candy) with the dignity proper to her position. Following the minutes she started off with a BANG, exhibiting the iron hand she was given by Phyllis, the retiring president, and after reminding everyone of the new campus motto "VULTURES FOR CULTURE" (in light of the appreciation hour at 8:30) she hurriedly began the agenda.

Various committee chairman gave their reports of the work they have already begun during the week's time. Bible Study Breakfast has a new subject for this quarter, First John. Dallas, announced that waffles will be served Tuesday to quench the fires of hunger. The Taps Committee has reported two new slogans, "SAVE SANFORD" and "TEAR OUT TO TAPS." It appears that the new taps groups have been organized, consisting of Izzie, Wizzie (yours truly) and Wong Cong from Hong Cong, which is held in the Owlcove every evening.

Patsy Blalock reminded us to register to vote by May 1st, and announced that Current Affairs is planning to have a mock political rally of the Georgia Primary in Chapel one day this quarter. Each gubernatorial candidate will be represented by a girl on campus, and his particular views and platform will be presented. I wonder who will represent my old friend of the swamps, POGO?

ATTENTION PLEASE! The new 'Y's OWL BULLETIN BOARD' with a picture of me on it has been put up in the S. U. Keep your eye on it!

Perhaps you didn't know it, but everyone is invited to the foreign student forums at 6:45 every Thursday evening in the language institute. Watch the bulletin board for the topics to be discussed.

It appears that Izzie is going to be very busy since Erin's favorite phrase is, "Will you arrange a meeting with Izzie?" I hope that I don't get involved with all these arrangements.

We had very special guests present at cabinet meeting. Jan Anderson, Jo Strickland and Sue Osburn were there. Jan gave a very long speech with follows. "Huh?" Some very good news was told by Sue. The P. E. Dept. and Rec. are buying 25 pairs of roller skates for those girls who are little "wheels" and maybe some bikes for the "big wheels".

And with that everyone scattered to get ready for the concert. See you around.

—WIZZIE

Spectrum-Colonnade Get New Heads

Editors of the Spectrum and Colonnade for the coming year have been announced by the faculty committee on student publications. Anne Bowen is editor of the Spectrum and Mary Hall is the Spectrum business manager. The staff for the Colonnade are Shirley Agerblad, editor, and Barbara Bishop, business manager.

Judge—In not granting you a divorce I want to remind you that you took your husband for better or worse.

Mrs. Black—Yes, but I didn't take him for good did I?

CGA RETREAT— tests begin. In the future dances will be scheduled long enough in advance to prevent this, but this particular dance will be an exception.

After rule changes were discussed, Gloria Driver, chairman of the college calendar committee, reported on the work that has been done on the new calendar. The same general type of desk calendar will be used with a few changes in the cover. EXAMS will be written across examination dates. This committee is immediately starting to work on dates on the calendar.

Martha Lee Dye, chairman of student chapel programs, presented the scheduled programs for this quarter. Beginning in the fall quarter different clubs will be asked to present the Monday morning programs so that students can become familiar with activities and members of campus clubs.

On Saturday morning the meeting began with a report from Louise Powell, chairman of Judiciary, who gave plans for next year's handbook and for Judiciary. Then Jo Strickland, vice-president of CGA gave recommendations for the junior advisor program and plans for the Board of House Presidents. Following this Sarah Anne Staples, chairman of Honor Board outlined the program which Honor Board plans to follow. As these reports were heard, many good ideas for improvement were brought up by the group and worthwhile discussions were held.

YWCA To Sponsor

Dr. W. T. Martin

April 27th-29th

"A Head and a Heart Religion"

will be the theme for the discussions led by Dr. William T. Martin during the YWCA's spring Religious Focus Week on April 27, 28, and 29. Dr. Martin, who is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Tallahassee, Florida, will direct thought toward a more intelligent faith.

Preparation now being made includes setting up the various working committees, directing denominational programs toward the particular questions of college students in the realm of religion, and placing a question box below the Y bulletin board in the S. U. for questions as they arise in the days prior to Religious Focus Week.

Today's CHESTERFIELD is the Best Cigarette Ever Made!

"Chesterfields for Me!"

Robert Henninger Purdue Univ. '56

The cigarette tested and approved by 30 years of scientific tobacco research.

"Chesterfields for Me!"

Deborah Kerr Star of the Broadway Hit "Tea and Sympathy"

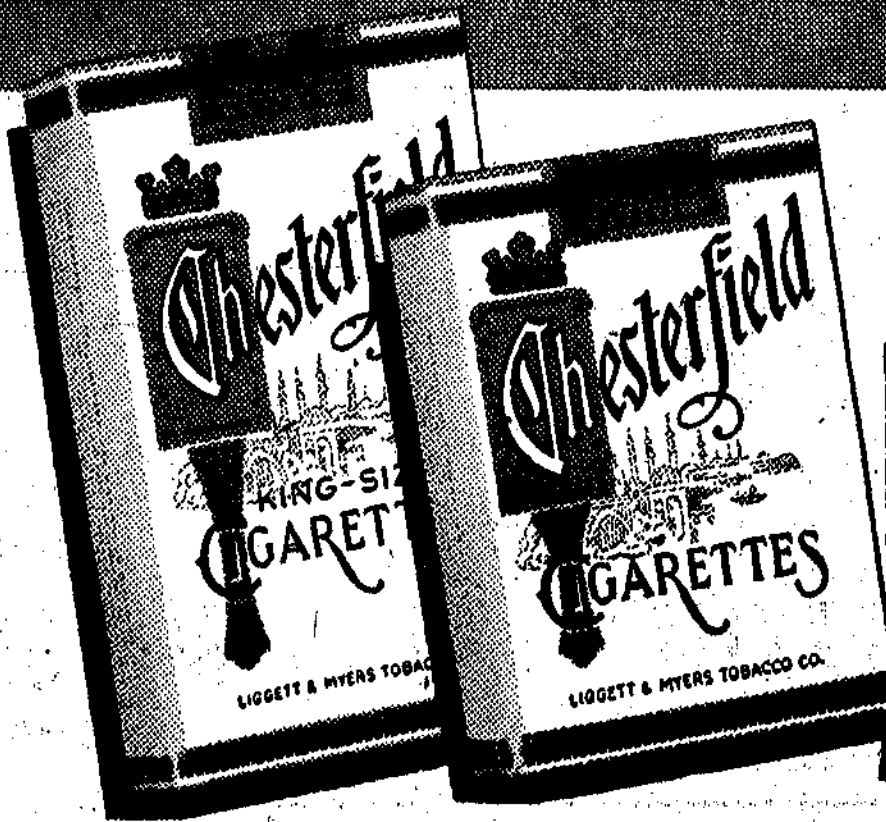

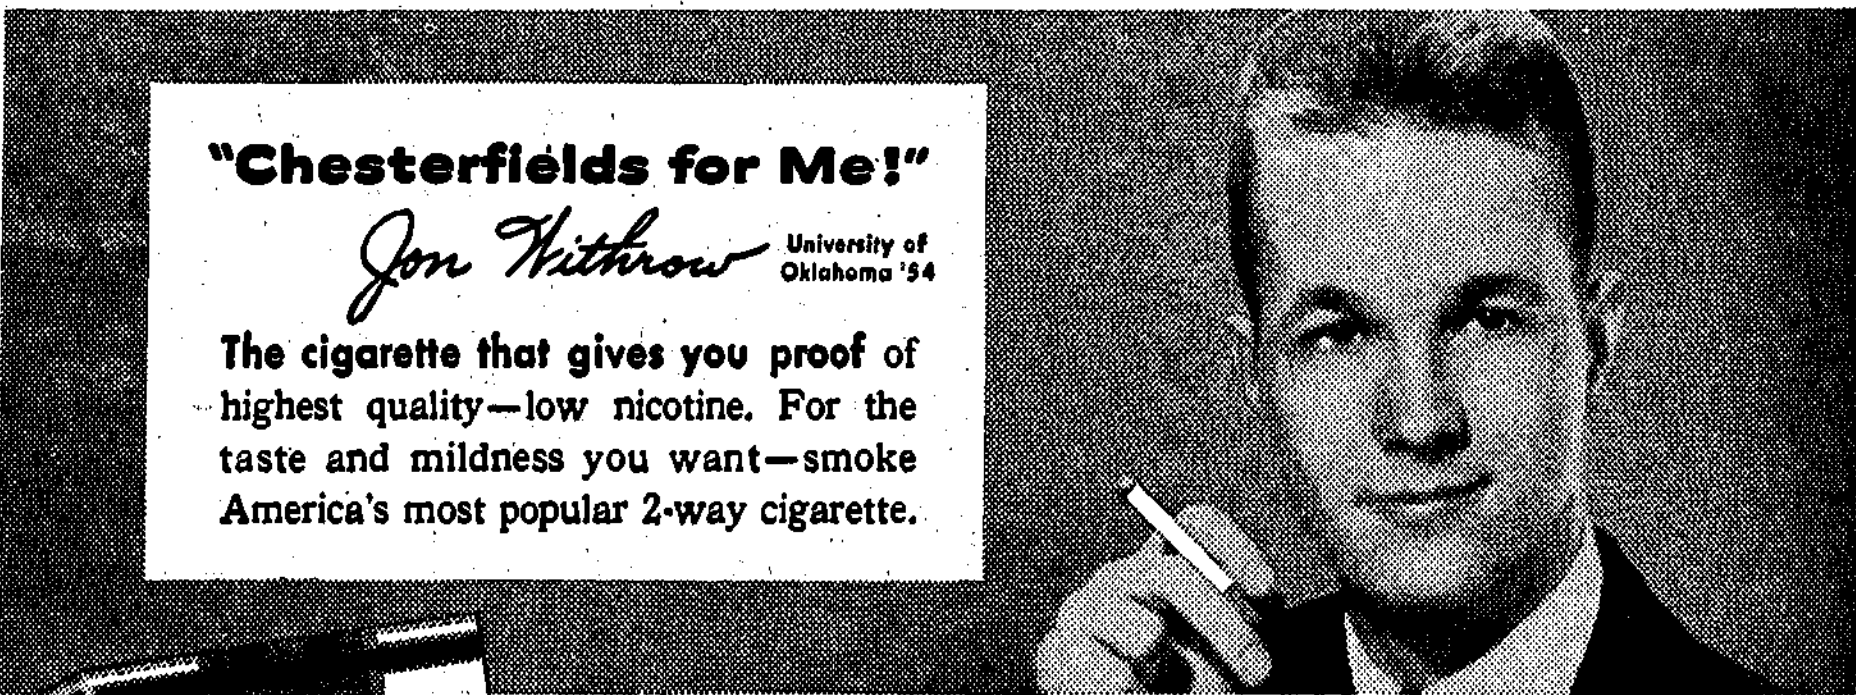

The cigarette with a proven good record with smokers. Here is the record. Bi-monthly examinations of a group of smokers show no adverse effects to nose, throat and sinuses from smoking Chesterfield.

"Chesterfields for Me!"

Jon Withrow University of Oklahoma '54

The cigarette that gives you proof of highest quality—low nicotine. For the taste and mildness you want—smoke America's most popular 2-way cigarette.

Largest Selling Cigarette
in America's Colleges

CHESTERFIELD
BEST FOR YOU

Copyright 1954, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.